OF THE

ANNUAL CONFERENCES

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH,

FOR THE YEARS

PUBLISHED BY JOHN EARLY,
FOR THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

PRINTED BY COLIN AND NOWLAN.

Be nothing in your own eyes; for what is it, alas, that we have to be proud of? Our very conception was sinful; our birth painful; our life toilsome; our death we know not what! But all this is nothing to the state of our soul. If we knew this, what excuse have we for pride.

John Wesley.

Whate'er in me seems sure, or good,
Or strong, I here disclaim;
I wash my garments in the blood
Of the atoning Lamb.

WILLIAM GUNN: One of Zion's honored sons; a man of God; a minister of Christ in faith in purity and power. He was born in Caswell county, N. Carolina, March 13, 1797, and removed with his father, (Rev. James Gunn,) to Tennessee in 1812. Converted in early life, he was licensed to preach before he was of age, and joined the itinerancy in the year 1819. His appointments were as follows: To Henderson circuit, Kentucky, Barren, Little Kanawha, Danville, Madison, Salt River, Shelby, Lexington, Shelby, Shippingport, Shelby, Kentucky District (now Lexington) four years, Shelby circuit, Louisville District two years, Lexington District four years, Shelbyville District four years, Harrodsburg station, LaGrange circuit two years, Shelby, Taylorsville, and Lexington District three years, in the last of which he was called to his reward.

Wherever was his field of labour, our brother was a man of labour in that field. And whilst "in labours more abundant," he excelled his brother also "in reading and learning the Scriptures ;" so that besides the aid of our commentaries in the study of them, he acquired during the years of his laborious ministry a competent knowledge of the original languages, both Greek and Hebrew, which he employed profitably, and without ostentation in his studies. One of the best exegetical preachers of our connection, he was also one of the most spiritual and powerful.

His death was a beautiful consummation of his life. Appearing restless in the night, and being asked what was the matter, " nothing, my dear," was his reply, " only I am happy thinking of my reward." Again he said, " I have no anxiety, I have perfect peace." To one of his brethren in the ministry, he said, " should I not live, tell the conference that I have strong faith in our holy religion. I do not regret having spent my life as I have, an itinerant preacher. I would rather travel the poorest circuit in the roughest country than have any wordly preferment that could be conferred upon me." And he added, " should I live, this work shall make my heart rejoice, and spend the remnant of my days."

Thus died our honored and beloved brother, Wm. Gunn, on the 3d of Sept. 1853, in the 57th year of his age, and 34th of his itinerant ministry.

SAMUEL F. TAYLOR, has been taken from the field of Gospel labours at the beginning of the day. He was admitted on trial at our last conference and appointed to Prestonsburg circuit; where he began his work well, and much was expected of him; but it pleased God to give him a happy death rather than a laborious life.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

Rev. DAVID ADAMS departed this life at his residence, in Knox county, Tennessee, on Friday, April 15, 1853. He had been confined to his house and his bed for nearly twelve months before his death; during which time he suffered much, but bore all with Christian fortitude, and was never heard to murmur or complain.

Bro. Adams was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at a camp-meeting in Sullivan county, Tennessee, in the fall of 1815; and in August, 1818, was licensed to preach, under the administration of Jesse Cunningham, then presiding on the Abingdon district. Soon after, he joined the traveling connection, and was ordained Deacon, by Bishop McKendree, at Salem, Virginia, Nov. 11, 1821, and Elder, by Bishop Roberts, Nov. 8, at Knoxville, Tenn., and was appointed Presiding Elder of the Abingdon district, which office he filled with credit to himself and advantage to the Church.

Rev. David Adams was one of nature's gifted sons. He possessed a rich and varied talent for the pulpit—a commanding voice, a fine delivery, a sympathetic temperament, and all the elements of true pulpit eloquence. As a field preacher, he scarcely had an equal, perhaps no superior. In the open air, he lifted up his voice like a trumpet, and countless multitudes were moved, like the trees of a forest, before a strong wind! But he is gone to his reward in Heaven. He died in the fifty-seventh year of his age, and thirty-fifth of his ministry. In the midst of his sufferings, he was frequently asked—Brother Adams, how is it with you now? His answer was, "all is well." He often spoke of death with the utmost composure—said he had many dear relatives and friends in Heaven. Then exclaimed, O, what a happy meeting it will be when I get there—all is well!

Brother Adams, having been twice married, left a wife and ten living children to mourn their loss. He was a kind husband, father and master. A few hours before his departure, he summoned his family around his bed, gave his dying advice and counsel, exhorting them to meet him in Heaven.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy master's joy.
Soldier of Christ well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

None.

Ques. 10. Who have withdrawn this year?

None.

Ques. 11. Were all the Preachers characters examined?

This was strictly attended to.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

Cullen Penny, Elijah Perkins, Ralph Douglass.

Rev. CULLEN PENNY was born in Lincoln county, North Carolina, December 10th, 1814; professed religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in the 25th year of his age; was licensed to preach the Gospel of Christ, June 21st, 1845.

Brother Penny traveled two years under the direction of the Presiding Elder, with usefulness and acceptability, and was admitted into the St. Louis Annual Conference, on trial, in the fall of 1847. He successively traveled St. Genevieve, Crooked Creek, Greenville and Doniphan circuits, with extensive usefulness, bringing hundreds from the kingdom of darkness to the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Doniphan was his last field of labor, where he fell in the midst of battle, crowned with victory. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ which crowned his labors with more than ordinary success, sustained him abundantly in the last conflict.

Brother Penny breathed his last September 9th, 1852. His end was peaceful, happy and triumphant.

REV. RALPH DOUGLASS was born Jan. 23d, 1820, in Wheeling, Va. He graduated at Jefferson College, Pa., in the year 1841, receiving at the time the degree of A. B. Three years afterwards, the same institution conferred upon him the degree of A. M. Immediately after leaving College, he commenced the study of law in Wheeling, Va., which he pursued until 1842, when he made a profession of religion, and joined the M. E. Church. Shortly afterwards, he was licensed successively as an exhorter and local preacher; and in the year 1843, commenced his itinerant ministry in the Pittsburg Conference.

Upon the division of the church, he adhered South, and came to Missouri in the early part of 1846. On the 17th of August, 1853, he closed his labours and life in the firm hope of eternal life, at Bridgeton, St. Louis county, Mo.

The character of brother Douglass, from its uniformity, is more difficult of delineation than it would be if it stood out in prominent traits. Still his friends could appreciate it, and they sincerely admired, and loved him. Though not physically strong, the depth of his religious convictions, and his zeal in the service of his Master, made him an efficient minister of the New Testament. His general clearness and soundness of judgment, his wisdom and prudence, gave him a high and strong position in the confidence of his brothers in the ministry and membership.

His last disease was violent, but his trust in God was unshaken, and he died triumphantly sustained by the Saviour he had so faithfully served. May the Father of Mercy help us also, to be ready, for in such an hour as we think not "the Son of Man cometh."

For E. PERKINS, no obituary furnished.

Rev. RICHARD BOND was born in Baltimore county, Maryland, Oct. 18th, 1800. He was converted to God through the instrumentality of the Methodists, in the year 1818, and soon after joined the M. E. Church. Not long after this, he became satisfied in his own mind, that God intended him for the work of the ministry; but this conviction he resisted for some time, feeling himself insufficient for so great and responsible a work. At length, however, he yielded to the strong convictions of duty, and consecrated himself, his life, and his all, to the service of God, in the office and work of the ministry; and preached his first sermon from Psalms, 50th; 14 15 verses. He joined the Baltimore Conference on trial in April, 1824, and was elected to Deacons and Elders orders, in due course of time. He occupied the following fields of labor in the bounds of the Baltimore Conference; in 1824 and 1825, Northumberland circuit. In the year 1826, traveled with Bishop McKendree; 1827, Fairfax circuit; 1828, Prince George circuit; 1829, Winchester circuit; 1830, Westmoreland circuit; 1831, Lancaster circuit. In the year 1832, he was without an appointment; in 1833, he traveled Fairfax circuit; 1834, Great Falls, 1835 and 1836, Gettysburg circuits. He was stationed in Chambersburg in 1837 and 1838; and in Hollidaysburg 1839 and 1840. In the year 1841, he was transferred to the Missouri Conference, and appointed to the St. Charles district, where he remained two years; 1843 and 1844, he traveled the Danville circuit; in 1845, he was appointed agent of the American Bible Society, for the State of Missouri, in which office he was continued, until called by death, "to cease at once to work and live."

He was married to Miss E. A. Thompson, Nov. 17th, 1829, in the town of Warrenton, State of Virginia; and died on the 7th of March, 1853, leaving a widow and seven children to mourn their loss.

Dr. Bond was a good man, a good preacher, and a good Bible Agent, doing much good in the world. He died in great peace, and has gone to receive his reward on high. "He is not dead, but sleepeth."

Thomas Crowder, Martin A. Dunn.

The Rev. THOMAS CROWDER, late of the Virginia Conference, was born on the 22d of September, 1797, in the county of Wake, North Carolina. His parents were pious members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and strove conscientiously to bring up their children "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." As a natural consequence of such early Christian training, brother Crowder had but very indistinct recollections of his earliest religious impressions. They were, however, early and frequent, and doubtless exerted a most salutary influence upon his forming character through the years of his boyhood and youth.

His parents, as we learn from the auto-biographical sketch which he deposited among the papers of the Conference, though occupying a respectable rank in society, were unable to give their numerous children a liberal education. "They did," in this regard, (to use his own language,) "what they could." This, however, was not sufficient to satisfy his thirst for education and knowledge, and to enable him to reach such a position among his fellow men as he ardently aspired after. He determined to qualify himself for the profession of law. With this view, after laboring through the day for his father, he wrought of nights for himself until the proceeds of his labor amounted to some $ 500 or $ 600. With the money, so procured, having obtained his freedom two years sooner than he was entitled to it by the law of the State, he determined to go to some high school in which he might acquire a classical education.— While prosecuting his studies in the city of Raleigh, as I remember having heard him relate, he became, from much reading of the Scriptures and frequent hearing of preaching, greatly concerned about his spiritual condition. Here, on the 19th of October, 1819, when he was 23 years of age, after a painful struggle alone in his room, sometime between midnight and daybreak, he was most happily converted.

About twelve months after his conversion and before he had yet completed his preparation for a collegiate course of studies, he became deeply impressed of the Holy Ghost that it was his duty to preach the Gospel. This was an exceedingly sore trial to him. It came in violent and most painful collision with all his fondly cherished ambitious hopes. To quote his own words, "it haunted me by day and by night. Oh, what anguish did I feel? I said I was unworthy, unable, unprepared, afflicted, and a hundred other things. I got no rest, however, until I reluctantly consented to go and try." Yielding to this potent impression and feeling that he was treading a divinely designated path of duty, he went up duly recommended in the year 1821, to the Virginia Annual Conference, held in the city of Raleigh, N. C., and was there and then received as a probationary traveling preacher.

The writer of this sketch is not sufficiently furnished with the facts of his life to give a reliable account of his various fields of labor and of his success in them. His numerous friends, who may feel an interest in this matter, can procure such information as they may desire by consulting the minutes of the Conference. Let it suffice to say that he was a laborious, faithful and successful minister of the Gospel in whatever department of the work he operated. He traveled extensively, was widely known and generally beloved. Thousands in North Carolina and Virginia, who were often and much benefitted by his ministry, will rise up in the great day of judgment and call him blessed. Were this paper designed for an eulogy, rather than a biographical sketch, much might be said in praise of his character and career.

He died in the district parsonage, just out of the corporation limits of Charlottesville, on the — of December, 1852. He had been for months laboring under an affection of the liver, which imperiously demanded rest and medicinal attention, but such was his self-forgetfulness and consuming zeal for Christ and his cause, he wore himself out in incessant ministerial exertion. In the first part of his sickness, he cherished the hope of being restored to health, and to his work. As the disease advanced and assumed a more threatening aspect, he cheerfully abandoned all hope of living, attempted to dictate his will when it was too late, and then calmly and fearlessly resigned himself to die. He was a man of God in the strongest sense of this strong expression, and had been from the days of his early manhood, and such men are not fearful living or dying. His last moments were too much obscured by delirium for him to leave such a dying testimony as we are wont to look for. Even in his delirium, however, his mind was wandering over his district, and dwelling upon, and praying aloud for, such parts of it as were troubled with special difficulties. Such a life of faith, of piety, and of faithful ministerial labor, must, through the saving efficacy of the Redeemer's blood, have ended in the bliss of heaven.

MARTIN A. DUNN, the subject of this memoir, was the son of Martin and Martha Dunn, was born on the 16th day of January, 1808, in Louisa county, Va. He received the grace of regeneration at a camp meeting held at Salem, Fluvanna county, Va., on the 13th day of August, 1824. He united himself to the Methodist Episcopal Church. In September, 1830, he was licensed to exhort, and in May, 1831, he received license to preach as a local preacher. He was ordained deacon at the Baltimore Annual Conference, held at Winchester, Va., 1835. For a short time he was employed in teaching school at Woodstock, Va. In 1837, he acted as an agent of the Va. Bible Society. He travelled Madison circuit under the P. E., in 1838, and during the year, he laboured and rejoiced in the midst of a glorious revival of religion. At the Conference held at Edenton, N. C., in 1839, he was received on trial into the Va. Annual Conference, and admitted to the order of an elder in the church of God. At this Conference, he was appointed to the Campbell circuit, where his faithful labours were crowned by the blessing of God with success, and many were added to the Lord. At the Conference held at Farmville, Va., 1840, he was appointed to Cumberland circuit. During this year also, he was greatly blessed in his ministry. More than three hundred souls were added to the church. He was admitted into full connection with the Va. Conference in Lynchburg, 1841. From that time to the termination of his earthly career, he continued to labor in the various fields to which he was assigned, with great zeal, acceptability, and success. He had a good education. He was an intelligent, useful, Methodist preacher. He was truly a man of God. He was a consistent christian, a lovely man, and was greatly beloved, both by his brethren in the ministry, and by the people amongst whom he went forth preaching the glorious Gospel of the blessed God. As Bro. Dunn lived, so he died. He departed this life in great peace, at the residence of Bro. James Blackwell, near Warenton, Fauquier, county, Va., in the 45th year of his age, on the 28th day October 1852. Those who knew our good Bro. Dunn, will not willingly allow his excellent character to fade from their memories. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

None.

Ques. 11. Are all the preachers blameless in life and conversation?

Their names were called, and their characters examined and passed, one by one.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

ETHELBERT H. HATCHER, was born January 19th, 1818, in Bedford county, Va., and removed with his father's family to Tennessee, in 1837. He was licensed to preach the following year, and was admitted on trial in the itinerancy, October, 1839, and appointed to Sumner circuit. In 1840, he was appointed to Franklin, in 1841, and 1842, to Clarkesville, 1843, to Athens, and 1844, to Lebanon. After this, his ministry was exercised with great success as an agent of the American Bible Society, till the spring of 1852, when his health, which had been long declining, and now seemed quite gone, constrained him to give up all public labors. He died in Florida, on the 25th of Jan., 1853, closing a life of great purity and power, though short, with true unwavering faith and hope. Many and happy were his expressions of confidence in the Saviour, and of his readiness to depart; of which we will mention only his message to his mother: "Tell mother," said he, "that I go to glory!"

Brother Hatcher possessed extraordinary mental endowments, which he cultivated diligently, and was greatly honored as a preacher. He was an Orator, and a Poet. But whatever he was, was the Lord's, and the prime beauty and glory of his character was the constancy and consistency of his living to the Lord. A bright and shining light was he.

BENJAMIN R. GANT, was born in the State of North Carolina, Oct. 28th, 1812. He was licensed to preach in 1840, and was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference, in 1841, and appointed to Centreville circuit. He subsequently labored in Nashville, Mt. Pleasant, Stone's river, Mill Creek, and Spring Hill circuits, (several of them, for two years at a time,) and in 1852, was appointed presiding elder of Lebanon district, where he finished his course on the 4th of March, 1853. He was a fervent preacher, a powerful exhorter, greatly gifted in prayer, a diligent pastor, a faithful presiding elder, and eminently successful in his ministry. Dying, he said, "tell the preachers that I find the doctrines I have preached will do to die by—I die at my post—it is a glorious privilege to die!" And so he fell asleep in Jesus.

JOSEPH F. TINNEN, was born in Tennessee, September 26th, 1824, was licensed to preach in 1845, and was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference, in 1846. His first two years in the itinerancy were spent in Arkansas, where he travelled the Mt. Vernon and Helena circuits. He afterwards travelled Savannah and Cypress circuits in the Tennessee Conference, till he became disabled by the disease of which he died. He died at Wayland's Springs, June 17th, 1853, testifying of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, to his latest breath.

JAMES WARD HARDY, was born in Georgia, January 19th, 1815, joined our church in 1834; graduated with distinction at Randolph Macon College, Va., in 1837, and was elected to the chair of experimental science, 1838. In 1847, he was elected to the double professorship of Mathematics and Chemistry, in LaGrange College, Ala. He was licensed to preach and admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference, in 1852. In 1853, he was appointed President of LaGrange College, and died August 14th, 1853. He was a noble minded generous hearted man, a profound scholar, a devoted christian and an eloquent preacher. All his great powers were exerted for the cause of religion, and few living men seemed likely to accomplish more for it than he did, but it hath pleased God to take him thus early from his useful labors to his rest in heaven.

* REUBEN A. HICKMAN, died on the 24th of March, 1853, in the 27th year of his age. He had but just entered the ministry, and gave promise of becoming an eminently useful laborer, when he was summoned from his labors on earth, to his rest and recompense in heaven. His death was triumphant.

John F. Boot.

The distinguished subject of this notice was a native Cherokee. At the time of his baptism to the Christian faith, he was named for the exemplary Fletcher of Madely. He departed this life, covered with the glories of the ministry, the 8th of August 1853, aged above sixty years. From the time of his conversion to the date of his demise, he steadily evinced the most unyielding integrity to his calling. As a man, he was admired and esteemed by all who knew him. Even prior to his conversion he was a leader among the people, and regarded by all as worthy of implicit trust. Indeed it seemed that nature had lavished upon him the essential properties of the truly great man, and it was only necessary for these to be consecrated to the service of the cross, to make him a powerful agent of good to his people. It is true that, owing to the fact that he was master of none but his native dialect, he will never be fully appreciated or known by the world, yet in the great assize he may stand next the most favored hero of the world's renovation. There are suns that rise and set, whose light has ne'er yet reached our eye.

He was a man of unsullied patriotism. None was more ready to defend the rights of his country against the aggressions of hostile tribes than he. Above thirty years ago, when a small party of Cherokees had located on the tributaries of the Arkansas, they suffered much from the dominant tribes that then peopled the prairies of the West. News of their condition reached the nation east of the Mississippi, and Boot was one among the first to shoulder his rifle and hasten to their rescue. A distance of eight or nine hundred miles, partly unmarked by the traveller's path, was soon thrown behind, and Boot joined his brethren of the Arkansas to meet the fortunes of war. There is a path winding up the river, and crossing near Fort Gibson, still known as the one made by the party when they hastened in pursuit of the enemy.

After his return to the east of the Mississippi, the warrior of the far west, himself, was conquered by the cross, and admitted into the church by the Rev. Mr. McMahan, about twenty-eight years ago. He soon felt pressed by the "Captain of our salvation" to fall into the ranks of his Conqueror, and to fight for the rescue of a world. Two years from his conversion he was licensed to preach. In 1832 he was ordained deacon at Nashville by Bishop Andrew, and afterwards elder by the same, at Lebanon, Tenn. From the time he was received into the itinerancy till the Lord "took him" he was never known to swerve from any work assigned him by the church; but, always regarding his appointments as from the Lord, he would cheerfully breast the snows of winter, and range the mountains of his native land, that he might "win Christ," and break the spell of heathenism that bound his people. He was the first native Indian that administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper among the Cherokees. His first ministration of this sacrament resulted in the awakening and conversion of at least one of his brethren who still lives a bright example in the church, and maintains a life of usefulness in the itinerancy.

As a preacher, brother Boot had few equals. In the pulpit he bore along with him a power that seemed above human. He seemed to grasp his subject from beginning to end at once, and, imperceptibly ascending from a pensive confident manner, towards the close he would kindle into a majesty almost irresistible. Succeeding years will echo to the hearts of the present generation appeals that long since fell from his lips.

Amid the ill fortunes that have darkened the history of the nation, brother Boot was always a leader to protect the rights of the country. He was always the choice of the people to fill some of the most important offices, and, at the time of his death, was a member of the Executive Council of the nation. Yet honors of this kind made no change in him. Whatever station he filled, he was the same unostentatious man of God, counting it more honorable to suffer affliction with the people of God than to wear the crown of empires. He was one of the founders of the Cherokee Bible Society, and a strong supporter of its interests, as well as of the Temperance Reformation. The National Council at its late session, and the Cherokee Bible Society at its anniversary passed resolutions of the highest respect for his memory.

On Saturday he attended a massive temperance meeting and seemed to labour with as much health and strength as usual. He returned home the same evening, and on the following day, started to his appointment several miles off. On the way he called at the house of a local brother and desired him to go and fill the appointment, stating that he "felt as though his Father was about to take him." The local brother was so situated that he could not go. Brother Boot then remarked that "the appointment was out and he must try and fill it, if possible." He went on his way; but, before he reached the place of meeting he was taken ill. He paused by the way till he recovered a little and then turned for home where he arrived the same evening. By this time the haemorrhage of his lungs had become so profuse that he rapidly declined till towards morning when he fell asleep in Jesus. He died as he had lived, emphatically "at his post." In the death of brother Boot, to all human conception, it would seem we have sustained a loss irreparable. He fell in an age when great men fall. Mysterious are the ways of Providence, yet our Father will do all things well. We would say to the members of our infant conference, and know we express the feelings of each, let us like our brother, live and die at "our posts."

Ques. 10. Who has withdrawn from the connection this year?

No one.

Ques. 11. Are all the preachers blameless in life and conversation?

Their names were called one by one, and their characters examined and passed, except as specified in these minutes.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

BENJAMIN H. HUBBARD, D. D., died at Jackson, Tenn., on the 2nd of May last, in the forty second year of his age. He was converted in early youth, licensed to preach in 1835, and shortly afterwards, admitted into the itinerancy. His ministry was exercised in Hatchie circuit, Gallatin and Cairo, Huntsville, Ala., Columbia, Tenn., Trenton, Jackson, Somerville, Athens, Ala. At the last mentioned place, he was connected with the Tennessee Conference Female Institute, as President, till the year 1852, when he was transferred to Jackson, Tenn., in connection with the Jackson Female Institute. Dr. Hubbard was a lovely man, a very good scholar, and an excellent preacher. He died in the full assurance of faith, in the midst of admiring friends, and full of consolation, though seemingly cut off in the midst of his years.

WESLEY WARREN, M. D., was born September 9th, 1813, and was converted and joined the church in the year 1826. In 1832, he was licensed to preach, and the same year was admitted on trial in the itinerancy. His health failed in 1839, and he located and practised medicine in the town of Paris, Teon., till 1845, when he was re-admitted in the itinerancy. In Memphis, at Aberdeen, and at Jackson, he now exercised his ministry with great fidelity, purity and power, till by the wasting blight of consumption, which for some years had been stealthily preying on him, he was laid aside from labor, and took a superannuated relation to the Conference, in the year 1850. He died April 8th, 1853. Dr. Warren was an able expounder of the Holy Scriptures, a much admired and successful preacher, a man to be loved and honored; and his death was a triumph over death, quite on the verge of everlasting life.

DAVID O. ANDREWS was born June 4th, 1819, and was converted in the year 1839. He was licensed to preach in 1844, and was admitted on trial in the itinerancy nor many months afterwards. In this work, he continued for nine years, an example of diligence, fidelity and zeal, till his death, and was alike a brother beloved, and a useful and much honored minister. Dying, he was asked, "is your way clear to the good world?" "entirely so," he responded, "bless the Lord, Oh, my soul! and all that is within me, bless his holy name." And so, in his senses to the last, and full of faith and hope, he fell asleep in Jesus.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

DANIEL G. McDANIEL, of the South Carolina Conference, was born in Georgetown, District of Columbia, on the 15th of February, 1791. He was converted in 1811, in the Light street church, Baltimore; admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference, 1821, and that year appointed to the Broad river circuit. In 1822, he was appointed to Black swamp, in 1823, to Asbury mission, in 1824, to Yellow river miss., in 1825, to St. Augustine, 1826, to Pea river mission, in 1827, to Homes' valley mission, 1828, to Opopee, 1829, to Hollow creek, 1830, to Georgetown, 1831 and 1832, to Lincolnton, 1833, to King's Mountain mission, 1834, to Camden, 1835, to Yorkville cir., 1836, to Charlotte cir., 1837 and 1838, to Wadesboro' circuit, 1839 and 1840, to Lincolnton, 1841 and 1842, to Winnsboro', 1843 and 1844, to Orangeburg circuit, 1845, to Columbia circuit, 1846, to Rutherford circuit, in 1847, to Wateree mission, where he continued until the 11th of August, 1853, when he ceased at once to live and labor, in the 63d year of his age, and in the 33d year of his ministry.

Brother McDaniel was a faithful and holy man of God; a sound and sensible preacher; of good judgment, and great firmness and energy of character. Thirteen years of his ministry were spent upon a laborious mission field, when at last, he offered the sacrifice of his life, in preaching the unsearched riches of Christ, to the populations of river deltas, and rice fields.

He loved Methodism, her discipline and usage, her preachers, and her people. A few days before his death, he expressed an entire confidence in God, giving up his wife and children into his care, and closing his earthly mission with the words, "my life has been one of constant toil, but of no merit; I trust alone in the merits of Christ, my Saviour."

REV. MYLES GREEN, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, closed his career on earth January last, full of faith and full of good works. Born on the soil of the Old Dominion, raised in the land of liberal sentiment and generous hospitality, he received the stamp of the Virginia gentleman, which marked him through life as the representative of a noble generation. With generous heart and courteous manners, he could not fail to win the affections, the esteem of his fellows. The additional charms of a "meek and quiet spirit," added peculiar amenity to what was by nature a lovely character. With his childhood and youth, passed in connection with domestic religion, we are not surprised to find him at twenty a converted man. In the 21st year of his age he entered the itinerant ministry; but owing to the peculiar situation of his mother, he soon retired. In 1802 he came to Georgia, then comparatively a wilderness in the section he selected for his home. Around his dwelling by night, and intercepting his path by day was the wild savage to be seen. Often did he meet his neighbours to worship in the house of God, carrying their guns to protect their wives and children while they sang and prayed. The heathen had destroyed the temple of the Lord in the land, and as in the days of Nehemiah, they who builded its glory again had to fasten their weapons by their sides, while they toiled in the works. Identified with the interest of Georgia for full half a century, father Greene passed through all the vicissitudes of a young and growing state. Though his labors were principally local, they were highly valuable to the country. He met and encouraged those heroic men who plunging into the wilderness to rescue the wauderer from sin and death, seemed lost to all the sympathies of earth, and lived only in the joys of those who were converted by their ministry.

In 1832 he was received into the Georgia Conference, in which he said he wished to die. Most of this time he did not take work, but held unchanged a place in the confidence and affection of his brethren. He contributed largely to the success of the great and glorious work which has been accomplished in our state. As the infirmities of age began to increase, he reviewed his life with delight, saw it for more than sixty years connected with the church and rejoiced in the work God had enabled him to do. Around him a large family of christian children ministering with affection to his age, he seemed as the patriarch Abraham coming out of the wilderness and rejoicing on his way to the Mount of Vision. He looked on his country's progress and took courage: he beheld the advancement of his church and thanked God.

In such a ripe and happy old age, we see him on his birth-day in 1852 saying, "Soon I know my soul will be discharged from this tottering house of clay to enter my long sought home in heaven. This is likely my last birth-day: before another I hope to be in heaven." Six months go by, and we see our aged father passing the valley and shadow of death, but the pilgrim's staff is in his hand and he fears no evil. Amid all his physical suffering his soul looked forth calm and serene as the morning. He often prayed to be released from the body. The themes of his ministry gave him joy in that hour. "Christ is my righteousness," "Christ is my all in all." When the announcement was made by a ministerial friend that he was almost gone, he said, "Well, glory to God," and soon he was home.

AND'W J. REYNOLDS embraced religion in the 14th year of his age, and having spent eleven years of faithful labor in the itinerant ministry, fell at his post 11th September 1853. In the prime of life our brother is called from the field of labor to the rest above. The modesty of brother Reynolds made a special acquaintance necessary for his full appreciation. With limited educational advantages to begin with, his industry and natural gifts soon made him a useful and successful preacher wherever he was sent. His was a pure heart and a guileless spirit, yet he was true as steel in his devotion to God and the church of his choice. The strength of his manhood was devoted to the ministry; and in the midst of a successful year's work, he is called from the field while it is yet white to the harvest. Such has been the fruit of his labor a few months in Darien, that the little band, discouraged and dispirited, has rallied with new hopes and zeal, and now they apply for a stationed minister. In other fields he has labored with great acceptance and success. He had reached a point in ministerial qualification and experience where the largest results might have been expected from his labors. But the Master called him to rest ere noon arrived. His illness was protracted, and his mind often called to contemplate the grave, but he said he had not a shadow of doubt in reference to his acceptance with God. His work was done and he stood waiting to see the will of God. Away from home and friends, no weak repinings are heard; no fretting away the soul in useless regrets for life; no letting down the faith of his religion by a single murmur at Providence. But firm in his trust, he welcomed the summons of death as the call of his Father, home.

It is sad to see the flowers fade in autumn, but mournful to witness their waste in spring. It is gloomy enough to see the sun set at eve; but oh! how terrible to the traveler to have it eclipsed at noon. We weep when the aged father of the gospel comes to his rest in the fullness of age; but we bow down and are silent at the grave of manhood's prime. We still trust in God that he will do all things well. O that the spirit of the martyrs may rest upon us all.

REV. ANTHONY C. BRUNER has, for thirteen years, performed with fidelity the duties of an itinerant. He had left all, and gone forth to do the work of God with sincerity and zeal, as the true hearted Methodist minister does, believing that "they who go forth weeping, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless return again rejoicing, bringing their sheaves with them." It was the privilege of BRO. BRUNER to gather some of these bundles with which to enter the garner above. Few but those who feel them are able to appreciate the labor of the itinerant. Cut off from the usual pursuits of profit, prosecuting his work amid the penuriousness of unsanctified wealth, or in sterile fields of penury, with but little sympathy even from those who rejoice in the blessings he brings, often does his heart sink within him at the increasing wants of his family, or in the cheerless solitude of his own sorrow. Those whose days are gladdened with the love of friends, and whose nights are watched by the guard of faithful hearts, whose joys are enriched by the participation of home delights, and whose grief is lightened by the sympathy of genuine devotion, know nothing of the anxiety, solicitude and trouble of him who, in his master's work, meets with opposition from the world and cold co-operation from those in the church. In all of these our brother sustained the ministry like a man, and when he fell he was found at his post. He had the charge of Lafayette Circuit the past year and was faithful in his work until the master said, "it is enough, come up higher." Though the summons was sudden, he was ready. While walking through a grove to bid adieu to some friends, a limb fell from a tree and crushed him to the earth.—Though life lingered for awhile, he soon expired. It is pleasant to gather around the dying brother and bear away the words of triumph when he meets the last enemy of the christian; but it is a higher triumph when we point to his victory in a life of sacrifice and devotion to God. We may ask no marble pillar for our brother. Though dead he still lives in the virtues of the christian and the cherished recollection of a faithful minister.

Rev. JAMES BRADFORD SMITH was born in the county of Warren, Geo., September 1819. He was converted to God in the year 1836, in the 17th year of his age. In the year 1845 he was licensed to preach, and in the year 1846 he joined the Georgia Conference and was appointed to the Burke Mission: in 1847 he was appointed to Sandersville circuit: in 1848 he was on the Scriven circuit; in 1849 and '50 he was appointed to the colored charge in Augusta: in 1851 he was stationed in Milledgeville: in 1852 stationed in Rome: and in 1853 was stationed in Oglethorpe, where his labors ended in glorious triumph on the 7th of July, in the 34th year of his age.

Brother Smith was remarkable for his deep piety and uniform personal and ministerial propriety. No minister ever maintained the gravity and dignity of the ministerial character more fully, at all times, and in all places, than he did. He was a plain, substantial preacher; a most zealous, indefatigable laborer and a most faithful pastor and disciplinarian. God was pleased to give his divine sanction on every appointment he filled, in building up the church, and in the conversion of sinners to a greater or less extent.

And, as if premonished that the time was short, he manifested more than his usual zeal and faithfulness on his last work. On account of the prevalence of the small pox within the bounds of his station, he was unable to do much for several months, but, like a faithful shepherd, he remained at his post, doing what he could, and did not fail, when an opportunity offered, to stand forth in vindication of the truth.— His preaching was marked for its pointedness, and he left no vice in the community, or unfaithfulness in the church, unrebuked. So much was he burdened with a desire for the salvation of his charge, that he was heard to say, a short time before his last illness, that he would be willing to lay down his life for a revival in his station. The last sermon he preached, was as if he thought it were his last, and in the close he said to the congregation that it might be the last, but, said he, "I am clear of your blood:" and sure enough it was the last. He was soon after taken sick, and was confined to his bed for some thirteen days, during which he was never heard to utter even a groan, much less a word of complaint. He gave to those who attended him in his sickness the fullest assurance of a preparation for glory, honor, immortality and eternal life. His dying words were, "my business is arranged, all is right."—"I have lived to be ready to meet God in peace.— Thus he calmly fell asleep in the arms of the Redeemer, faithful in life, and triumphant in death.

The Rev. W. B. Moss was a native of North Carolina. He embraced religion between the twentieth and twenty-fifth years of his age, and within a year after was licensed to preach. He soon after removed to Georgia, and in the year 1846 joined the Georgia Conference, and was appointed to the Carrollton circuit: in the year 1847 he was returned to the Carrollton circuit: in 1848 he was appointed to the Clinton circuit: in 1849 he was on the Carnesville circuit: in 1850 he was appointed to the Clarkesville circuit. There his health failed him, and he was permitted to rest on account of ill health in 1851. In 1852 his health was so far restored as to justify him in the belief that he was able to do efficient work, and he was appointed to the Richmond circuit. Before the year closed his health again failed him, and at the Conference he took a superannuated relation. His health continued to decline until April, 1853, when he died. During his last illness he expressed the most entire resignation to the will of God, and gave indubitable evidence that all would be well whenever God should call him hence. When the summons of death came, it was as a thief in the night.— While conversing with his wife and a visiting friend, the call was made. He resigned his soul into the hands of God, and passed away in triumph. Brother Moss was a man of respectable talents, fervent in his zeal, deep and uniform in his piety, and laborious in all his efforts for the salvation of souls. He lived beloved and died regretted.

No one in full connection.

Ques. 11. Were the characters of all the Preachers examined?

Their names were called, and their characters passed, one by one.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

ORSAMUS L. NASH, born in South Carolina, December 2d, 1802, was converted in his youth, and was admitted on trial in the Mississippi Conference, December, 1825, having removed with his parents from South Carolina, first to Alabama, and afterwards to Mississippi. He traveled as follows: 1826, Jones' Valley; 1827 Chickasawhay, 1828-9 Attakapas, 1830 city of Natchez. In 1831 he located on account of feeble health, but at the close of the year was re-admitted and was appointed for the year 1832 to the city of New Orleans, 1833-4 Presiding Elder of Louisiana district, 1835 Choctaw district, where his health again failing he located a second time. At the close of 1847 he was again re-admitted, and was appointed for 1848 to Attala circuit, 1849 Clinton, 1850 Yazoo City, 1851-2 Clinton, 1853 city of Natchez. Here he closed his life and labours with exultant triumph August 8, 1853.

Brother Nash was a man of deep and fervent piety and unusual power in preaching, an excellent pastor an invaluable minister, and his end was glorious.

GEORGE W. MORRIS, born in Bath Co., Va., in the year 1798. He was converted in early life, and was licensed to preach in the year 1817, and the following two years was on trial in the Baltimore Conference. In 1820 he was transferred to Tennessee Conference, where he traveled till 1838. His appointments were Holston, Abingdon, Lee, Cypress, Lawrence, Stone's River, Goose Creek, Centreville—most of which he traveled several years. In 1838 he was transferred to Arkansas, and appointed Presiding Elder of Batesville district. This was his work two years, and then Batesville circuit and Helena district. At the close of his first year on the latter district, his health failing him he located, and continued in the located ministry till 1850, when he was re-admitted to the itinerancy in the Mississippi Conference. Here his appointment was Cole's Creek mission, and in this work he labored with great fidelity and usefulness till his death.

Brother Morris professed entire consecration of soul and body to the service of God, and his life was consistent with his profession. He was fully approved among us as a holy, laborious, faithful and useful minister of the Lord Jesus. He died as such a one might wish to die: ceasing at once to work and live, and gloriously full of immortality.

EDWARD LOVE, born in Ohio in the year 1828. He was admitted on trial in the Mississippi Conference in 1850, and appointed to Springfield circuit, but for sufficient reasons his field was changed to Bolivar mission, where he labored successfully two years. For the past year he was appointed to the town of Covington, where, after approving himself to the church and community as a young minister of great purity and promise, he died of that fearful epidemic, yellow fever.—“What will you do if the yellow fever comes here?” he was asked; and he answered “come life or death, I stand at my post." The fever came; he stood at his post as he had said, till it struck him down as he was day and night ministering to the sick and dying. But he fell to rise above all liability to fall. His death was life everlasting, and better than the day of his birth was that mortal day of September 19, 1853.

JOAB EVANS, born in Claiborne county, Mississippi, April 30, 1814, was converted in 1837, and admitted on trial in the Mississippi Conference at the close of 1842, and traveled regularly and successfully till 1849, when he located on account of some temporary press of business. In 1850 he was re-admitted and appointed to White Sand circuit. In 1852 he was supernumerary on Rankin circuit, and in 1853 superannuated.

Brother Evans was remarkable for zeal, and the fullness of the baptism of the Holy Spirit. He was not a preacher for the pulpit only, but was always busy about his Master's work; so that without the aid of great abilities to recommend him he was honored as a man of God, and was alike useful and beloved. He died at his residence in Rankin county, Mississippi, February 4, 1853, resigned to the will of God, and professing a meek readiness to depart.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

John Boswell, Wm. Wier, Thos. H. P. Scales, Jacob S. Hughes, Wesley R. Rounsvale, Augustus H. Powell, D. W. Pollock, and Thomas W. Manning. 8.

The Rev. JOHN BOSWELL, was born in Bladen County, N. C., Jan'y 30th, 1798, was converted in 1810, was licensed to preach, and entered the Conference in 1811, and consequently, was one of the few members of our body who were older than the Conference. He performed regular work until a few years since, when he was superannuated according to the intention of the discipline, from infirmity.

He died during the present year—strong in the faith he had so long preached. He was, in many respects, a remarkable man. Though entirely self-educated, he possessed a considerable fund of information, and was very successful, considering his advantages, in controversial defense of the doctrines of the Methodist Episcopal church. Father Boswell will long hold a place in our memory, as a specimen of the early Methodist preachers.

The Rev. WILLIAM WEIR, was born in Ireland, County Tyrone, June 5th, 1792, was converted about the year 1820, was licensed to preach about 1829, entered the itinerancy about 1830, in our Conference, filled Tuskaloosa station, Noxubee circuit, Greene circuit, Tuskaloosa district, Columbus district. Having been superannuated for the last year or two, he died recently, after a life of much suffering, in full hope of a blessed resurrection. Brother Weir was a man of original and decided character, strong will, and had a heart full to overflowing of the tender sympathies of human nature. He has gone from the ranks of the church militant, and we find it in our hearts to say :

“Servant of God well done.”

The Rev. THOS. H. P. SCALES, was born in Virginia, when quite young, removed with his parents to Tennessee, and from thence to Alabama; was converted at the age of twenty-five, when upwards of thirty, professed to obtain the “perfect love that casteth out fear,” and from that time to the end of his life, preached holiness of heart and life, both in his sermons, and in his example. For many years, a zealous and useful local preacher, in 1842, he entered the Alabama Conference, and during two years spent on Brush Creek circuit, two years in Eufaula and Glennville station, two years in Marion station, and one year on Talladega circuit, he “made full proof of his ministry.” Superannuated in 1850, on account of bad health, he continued to decline until the spring of the present year, when he “departed to be with Christ.” He was an unusually earnest and spiritual preacher, “full of the Holy Ghost and faith,” and was made a blessing to God’s people, wherever he went.

The Rev. JACOB S. HUGHES was born in Rockbridge county, Va., about the year 1816; removed, when quite young, with his mother to Ohio; afterwards he removed to Tennessee, and still subsequently he spent some years in Texas. Though converted very young, he commenced preaching about 1840, joined the Tennessee Conference, filled Rock Creek circuit, La Grange College station, Pulaski station, Russell Valley circuit, and the Bible Agency. In the Alabama Conference in 1846-7-8, he filled the Bible Agency, then La Fayette station, Talladega district, Camden station, Auburn station and Franklin st., Mobile, where he fell at his post from yellow fever, strong in the hope of the gospel. Bro. Hughes was a self-made man, a man of rare philanthropy and tenderness of heart, a useful and often eloquent preacher, and a most diligent and successful pastor.

The Rev. WESLEY R. ROUNSAVAL was admitted on trial in the Conference in the winter of 1845-6, and after doing regular work for six years, his health failed, and he continued to decline for a year or two, when he died of consumption recently, in great peace. He was one of the most amiable and pious young men ever admitted into this Conference.

The Rev. AUGUSTUS H. POWELL was born in Brunswick county, Va., July 5th, 1827, was educated at the Military Institute, Lexington, Va., was converted about 1842, came to Columbus, Mississippi, in 1845, joined the Alabama Conference in the winter of 1846-7, filled Green circuit, Tuskegee circuit, Gainesville station, La Fayette station, Greenesboro’ station, and St. Francis st., Mobile, where he died of yellow fever without a doubt of his salvation. Bro. Powell was a pious man, a hard student, a strong preacher, and a good pastor.

The Rev. DAVID W. POLLOCK was originally a member of the St. Louis Conference, where he filled several appointments in the city of St. Louis, then the Cape Girardeau district, and was afterwards one of the three first missionaries sent by our Church to California, where he labored until his health failed, when he returned and entered the Alabama Conference, was stationed awhile in Tuskaloosa, awhile in the Bible Agency, and died recently, casting all his care on Jesus. He was a remarkably sweet-spirited man, and a very eloquent preacher.

The Rev. THOMAS W. MANNING was licensed to preach in Pickens county, Ala., and after joining the Conference, filled Columbus circuit, Green circuit, Athens circuit, and during this, his second year on Athens circuit, he was taken sick and died, entirely resigned to the will of God. He was an honest, faithful man, and devoted to the work of God.

The Rev. JOHN W. STARR, Jr., was born in Henry county, Ga., Oct. 23d, 1830, was converted in Chambers county, Ala., in 1841, was educated at Oxford, Ga., was admitted on trial at the Conference, was sent to Wesley Chapel charge, Mobile, where he died of yellow fever, in full hope of Heaven, after attending the bodies of his brethren Powell and Hughes, who had died before him, to their graves. He was a very amiable, pious and promising young preacher.

"These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were pilgrims and strangers on the earth."

Ques. 14. What amounts are necessary for the Superannuated Preachers, and the widows and orphans of Preachers; and to make up deficiencies to those who have not obtained their regular allowance on the circuit; and for the support of the Bishops?

Ques. 15. What has been collected on the foregoing accounts, and how has it been applied?

$ 4556 80.

Which, after paying the amount due the bishops for their support, was divided out among the several claimants as follows:

To deficient preachers, at 80 per cent.
To widows and orphans, at 90 per cent.

The reason of this distinction, was because of certain amounts being contributed for these special objects. Further details of the Steward's report, not received.

Ques. 12. Who have died this year?

REV. RICHARD L. CHILDERS.—The subject of this sketch was born in Macon, Georgia, October 12, 1827. He was converted in the fall of 1841, at the Bibb Camp-Meeting, four miles west of Macon, in his fourteenth year. From this time till 1846 or '47 he remained, for the most part, in his native town, engaged in elementary studies, and in the acquisition of a practical business education. At this period he entered Emory and Henry college, Virginia, then under the superintendence of President Collins, where he graduated, with more than usual honors, June 20, 1850. Seven days after he was married to a young lady of Washington county, Va. whose acquaintance he had made during his college course. In the December following he removed, with his father's family, to Pleasant Hill, De Soto parish, Louisiana, where he was some time engaged as teacher in the Masonic Academy.

But a few months after his settlement in Louisiana, and in the first year of his marriage, his wife died. Of a lovely and winning deportment, and eminently pious, she was endeared to all whose fortune it was to know her. She passed from the bridal to the grave, leaving only the legacy of a sainted example, and the consolations of a peaceful death. But a few weeks after, in August, 1851, I became acquainted with Brother Childers. Broken, and subdued, his bereavement was borne with Christian resignation, and had, even then, received a sanctified application. He had just then received license to preach, and fully made up his mind to offer himself as a probationer at the ensuing meeting of our Annual Conference.

It does not appear that his call to preach assumed a more definite form than a sincere desire to consecrate his time and talents to works of usefulness, until he entered college. Even then he was perplexed, doubted whether he should assume the responsibilities of the ministry, and after his marriage, though his call to preach was undecided, his convictions of duty as an itinerant were dismissed. It is due to the memory of his wife, that she neither influenced or sanctioned this conclusion; and her dying sentiments, more than any thing else, seems to have shaken her husband's confidence in its correctness; facts, in themselves, of no mean significance in the estimate of her character as a woman of truth and godliness. Over her grave he vowed fidelity to the Cross, and consecrated his life to the Methodist Itinerancy. His short career shows how faithfully that vow was fulfilled, and how gloriously that consecration has been illustrated.

He was received as a probationer by the Conference, held in Thibodaux in the last of December, 1851, and was appointed, in connection with a senior preacher, to the Caddo Circuit. This, his first year in the regular work, was one of usefulness and acceptability. His second appointment was to the New Orleans Circuit, embracing a number of important preaching points adjacent to the city. At his post of duty, in the midst of useful and arduous labors, he sickened and died of the yellow fever August 30.

One other fact of his history should be mentioned. A few months before he received his first appointment, whilst on a visit to Virginia, he offered himself to Bishop Andrew as missionary to China, and was accepted. This offer was the result of much prayer and deliberation. It was made in good faith; but, on his return home, the advanced age of his parents, the precarious health of other members of his family, along with other weighty considerations, induced him, reluctantly, to consent to its withdrawal, provided such a course should receive the Episcopal sanction. I believe that both Bishops Paine and Andrew, and his most intimate ministerial brethren, approved of his course. Considering our want of men of this sort in the Louisiana Conference, and the reasons alluded to, his conduct in this affair is remote from the least censure. But, though hindered from the China mission by uncontrollable circumstances, he continued till his death to cherish the hope of embarking in some distant mission of Evangelical enterprise. He died in the missionary spirit, which is the spirit of a hero and a martyr.

The particulars of death have been given already, so far as they were of interest. His sickness of about ten days was borne with resignation; but the closing scene was sudden, unexpected, and veiled in speechless unconsciousness. The testimony of the dying sinner's hope is confined to the death-bed. If it be not given then, the world has nothing upon which to rest its charitable solicitude. It is not so with the Christian. When the circumstances of dissolution are such as to preclude the manifestation of parting assurance, we turn to their lives, and find there a surer testimony than even dying words can give. Here we rest our consolation in the present instance. A life of piety, of ministerial sacrifice, of fidelity even unto death, speaks in trumpet-tones that to him an abundant entrance has been administered into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

As a preacher, his sermons were characterized with severe plainness, excellent method, and searching application. Some of his discourses exhibited the budding, but not the blossoming of imaginative power. The shortest way of reaching his point, and the surest way of fastening it, marked all his pulpit efforts. The Cross was always the centre thought, about which the materials of sermonizing were gathered in such close neighborhood, that the whole structure glowed with its warmth, unction, and power. Pleasant to us is the memory of our departed friend and brother. In life and death we can contemplate his character with satisfaction. His is an enviable portion, to stand with those who have not loved their lives better than their Saviour; and who have, in their death, left a moral legacy to the church, and have recommended their names to the keeping of all time.
